

Family and Community Partnerships Orientation Policy/Procedure

Program/Provider: _____

Date: _____

Describe how you provide orientation to new families in your program, including the following: review policies, give a tour, have an open house, etc. Programs must also explain how they support families that need reading/translation services or other accommodations to understand the information.